

We are delighted that you are attending the virtual roundtable event for NGO leaders, co-hosted by the Ghana Science and Tech Explorer Prize (GSTEP) and the Practical Education Network (PEN). The agenda for the session will be as follows:

Time	Agenda item
13.00-13.05	Introduction and welcome
13.05-13.15	Short presentation by Constance Agyeman (Director at Nesta Challenges / the Ghana Science and Tech Explorer Prize): Introducing the Ghana Science and Tech Explorer Prize (GSTEP)
13.15-13.20	Short presentation by Sid Jha (Fondation Botnar): Funding the Ghana Science and Tech Explorer Prize (GSTEP)
13.20-13.30	Short presentation by Heather Beem (CEO at Practical Education Network, PEN): Introducing PEN and the STEM youth advocacy network
13.30-14.10	Workshop 1: Alignment on messaging of STEM education and youth entrepreneurship We will divide attendees into small breakout groups to align on the key aims and messaging around STEM, practical education and youth entrepreneurship in Ghana.
14.10-14.15	Short comfort break
14.15-14.50	Workshop 2: Working together as a STEM education and youth entrepreneurship network We will divide attendees into small breakout groups to discuss how we can work together most effectively, in practice.
14.50-15.00	Short presentation by Constance Agyeman (Director of the Ghana Science and Tech Explorer Prize, GSTEP, and Director at Nesta Challenges): 'What's next?' and questions

If you have any questions about the event, please contact
Naomi Whitbourn naomi.whitbourn@nesta.org.uk.